

Gold Coast Chapter Member Spotlight. Our Member Spotlight is a monthly feature highlighting a current club member, so we can all get to know each other better and be great resources for each other as we grow together!

December 2018

Holly Thomas, Gold Coast Chapter Events Director 2018-19

We asked Holly a few questions to get the interview started.

How do you want to help people financially?

“True understanding of how an illness can truly affect an entire family without LTC Insurance and the cost of home health care or facility care.”

What makes you unique?

“My passion for what I do. My dedication to not only my referral sources, but my patients and my community.”
